DONATIONS & GIFTS

The Caswell County Public Library appreciates donations from patrons.

Donated items in good condition will be added to the collection provided they meet the established collection development criteria.

Items not selected to add to the collection may be sold by the Friends of the Library, placed in one of the Free Little Libraries, donated to other agencies, or discarded.

Book and Materials Donation Forms are available to patrons for charitable donations. The library does not assign values to materials donated.

The Caswell County Public Library accepts all donations without regard to political, religious, or item origin. Exceptions include items affiliated with hate groups or those deemed obscene/pornographic.
